Retirement Portfolio Insights

The RPI Approach: We review your current portfolio and run it through our investment analysis suite* — six institutional-grade reports that show you exactly where your money stands, what it's costing you, and what optimized alternatives look like. No jargon. No pressure. Just clarity.

What We Analyze — 6 Report Categories

Color of Money Risk Analysis
Where your money actually sits across the risk spectrum — and whether your allocation matches your goals and timeline.

Portfolio Allocation Analysis
How your current mix of stocks, bonds, and alternatives compares to an optimized portfolio built for someone in your situation.

Model Portfolio Illustration
A side-by-side look at what a professionally managed portfolio looks like for your specific risk profile — from conservative to growth.

Gradient Structured Note & Buffer Analysis
How much downside protection your portfolio has today — and what built-in safeguards could look like if markets drop 15%, 20%, or more.

Income & Distribution Analysis
What your portfolio could generate in reliable income — and whether there are ways to improve yield without adding risk.

Fee Transparency Comparison
A clear breakdown of what you're currently paying versus what the same management would cost through our platform.

Getting started is simple. Bring your brokerage, 401(k), IRA, and annuity statements — paper or digital — and we'll take it from there. Turn this page to see exactly how the process works.

Gradient Investments, LLC

SEC Registered Investment Advisor • Institutional-grade portfolio analysis, model construction, and risk management • Serving independent advisors and their clients nationwide

How It Works

1. Share Your Statements
   Bring us your brokerage, 401(k), IRA, and annuity statements. We accept paper or digital — whatever's easiest for you.

2. We Run Your Personalized Analysis
   Our team reviews your holdings and runs the relevant Gradient reports tailored specifically to your portfolio and goals.

3. Your Review Meeting
   We sit down together and walk you through what we found — no jargon, just clear explanations of what your money is doing.

4. You Decide
   If we find opportunities to add value, we'll show you the path. If not, you walk away more informed. No pressure, no obligation.

What You'll Walk Away With

- A clear picture of your current risk exposure
- Understanding of available downside protection strategies
- Income and distribution potential analysis
- Side-by-side comparison with optimized portfolio models
- Transparent fee comparison — no hidden costs
- Clear, actionable next steps

We believe informed clients make better decisions. Whether you choose to work with us or not, you'll leave with a clearer understanding of where your money stands and what's possible.
